

Supernatural Prophetic Destiny

Joseph's life in Genesis 37-50 exemplifies the process and fulfillment of a promised supernatural prophetic destiny in the following ways (among many):

1. God gave him two prophetic dreams that showed Joseph his promised supernatural prophetic destiny.
2. Those two dreams were tested and seemingly died when he was sold into slavery, was falsely accused, and languished in prison – a 13-year process of the apparent death of the dream of his promised supernatural prophetic destiny.
3. Joseph's role was to continue to humbly believe God for the impossible fulfillment of his promised supernatural prophetic destiny when all circumstances indicated the exact opposite. He had to fully trust God and fully forgive his heartless brothers to maintain a vibrant hope when he could do nothing in his power to resurrect his own promised destiny.
4. God showed his faithfulness to His promised supernatural prophetic destiny released to Joseph as a teenager by weaving in the supernatural prophetic destinies of 1) the most powerful wicked leader of Joseph's day and 2) the powerful patriarch of Joseph's family. He released supernatural prophetic communications to each man and moved Joseph's entire family into proper position for extreme blessing/favor by use of a severe famine.

What does this mean for your personal promised supernatural prophetic destiny?

1. You must position yourself through expectation, intimacy, and an ongoing communication/conversation with Holy Spirit, who lives inside of you, for your promised supernatural prophetic destiny to be fully revealed to you.
2. You must intentionally listen to the voice of the Spirit, the voice of the Word of God, and the voice of Godly counsel rather than the multitude of screaming voices of the flesh, the world, and the devil, including "well-meaning" friends/family, for your promised supernatural prophetic destiny to be fully released for you.
3. You must fully love and trust God (despite adverse circumstances) and fully love and forgive others (without excuse) to have your promised supernatural prophetic destiny fully realized by you.

4. You must fully accept that your promised supernatural prophetic destiny is conditional/provisional based on your active intimacy with and obedience to Jesus as Lord, Holy Spirit living in your temple, and God as Father.
5. You must fully realize that your promised supernatural prophetic destiny is 1) not primarily for you alone, but to save, heal, deliver, and edify others and 2) always connected and weaved together with the promised supernatural prophetic destinies of other faithful, available, and teachable saints.
